Also, I've read some comments and I would to talk a little about this manhua. The description was taken directly from the raw manhua @ ac.qq. It becomes relevant later on, I might just make my own description for this manhua.

Next and most importantly IMO, is that this series is a a light hearted, comedy manhua. It's not a "serious" kind of manhua, like say Dou Po Qang Ciong (Battle through the heavens), Panlong or Doulo Dalu for action manhua.

I'd say it has more similarities with world travel manga and more specifically, ones from web novel like Death march kara hajimaru isekai seikatsu or Tate no Yuusha no nariagari (Rising of the Shield Hero). It has action but it's more of, everyday life in another world. So read this series like it's intended to be, light hearted and not to be taken so seriously and enjoy as his harem grows ever so slowly (ᵔᴥᵔ)

Also, thank you all for the kind comments, enjoy chapter 4.

Doesn't require Magic or Dou Qi?!
What is it? Uncle, please tell me quickly!

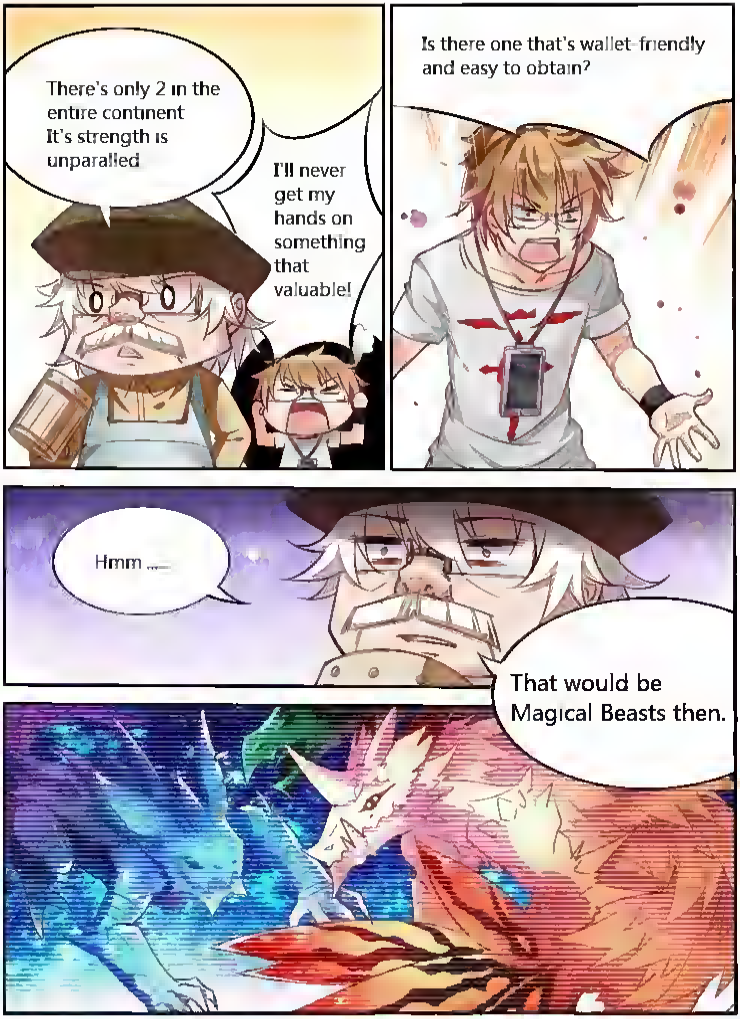
Magic Crystal Amulets as long as you say the Activation Chant it will cause a huge explosion of magical energy
It's made by Magic Crystal Specialists
Ooh! Give me a bunch!
The price is about 300 000 Moon Crystals per Amulet
My pay is only 2,000 Moon Crystals a month...
Are there any other ways?!
Let me think... There's a puppet called Fan Tian Xuan Jia, it's whole body is made of top grade crystal stones
It only requires a little Mental Energy to operate

Fan Tian Xuan Jia, a tric translatin would be Heaven Defying Black Armour? Als Mental Energy etc, I will compile and finalise the term used once the different terms start appearing.



There's only 2 in the entire continent It's strength is unparalled
I'll never get my hands on something that valuable!
Is there one that's wallet-friendly and easy to obtain?
Hmm ....
That would be Magical Beasts then.

Literal TL would be Magical Pets but I figured Magical Beasts would fit better. Magical Beast Companions or Magical Beast for short

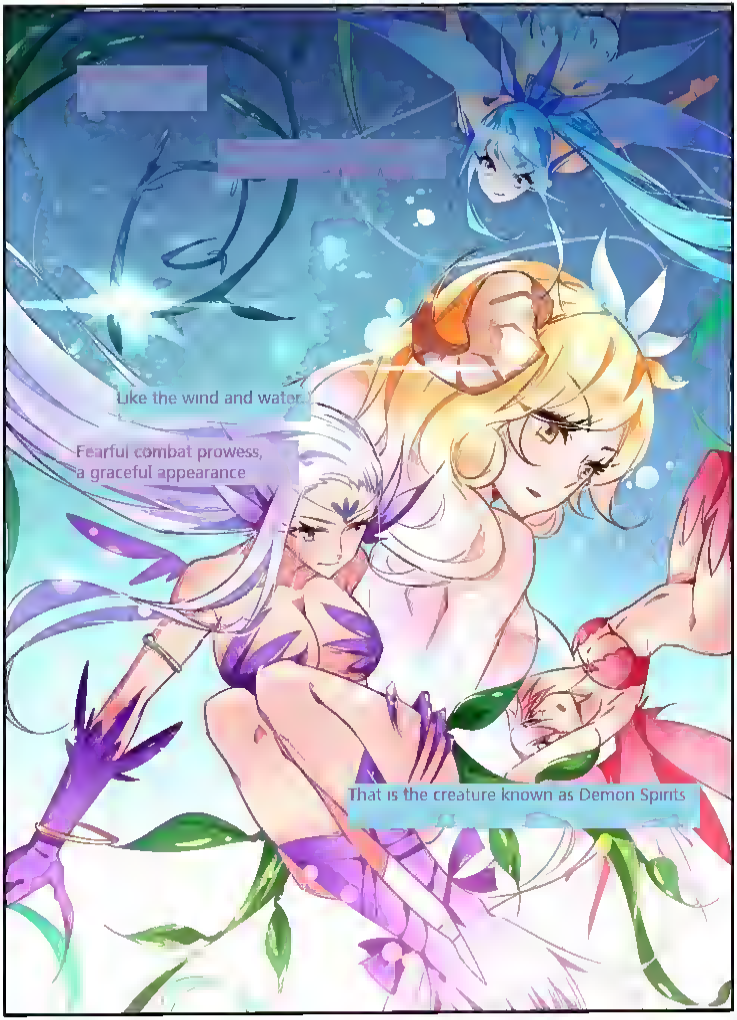
There is.
A creature told in the legends, said to only live on sunlight and water.
Demon Spirits.



Poetic description, praising the Demon Spirits. the first 3 lines are comparing it to charactenstics of certain things like scent of nectar. Strong beauties to sum up and the harem girls for the series.

But this was a legend passed down from the last century
Now, no one has ever seen a real Demon Spirit
And we don't know if they actually exist
